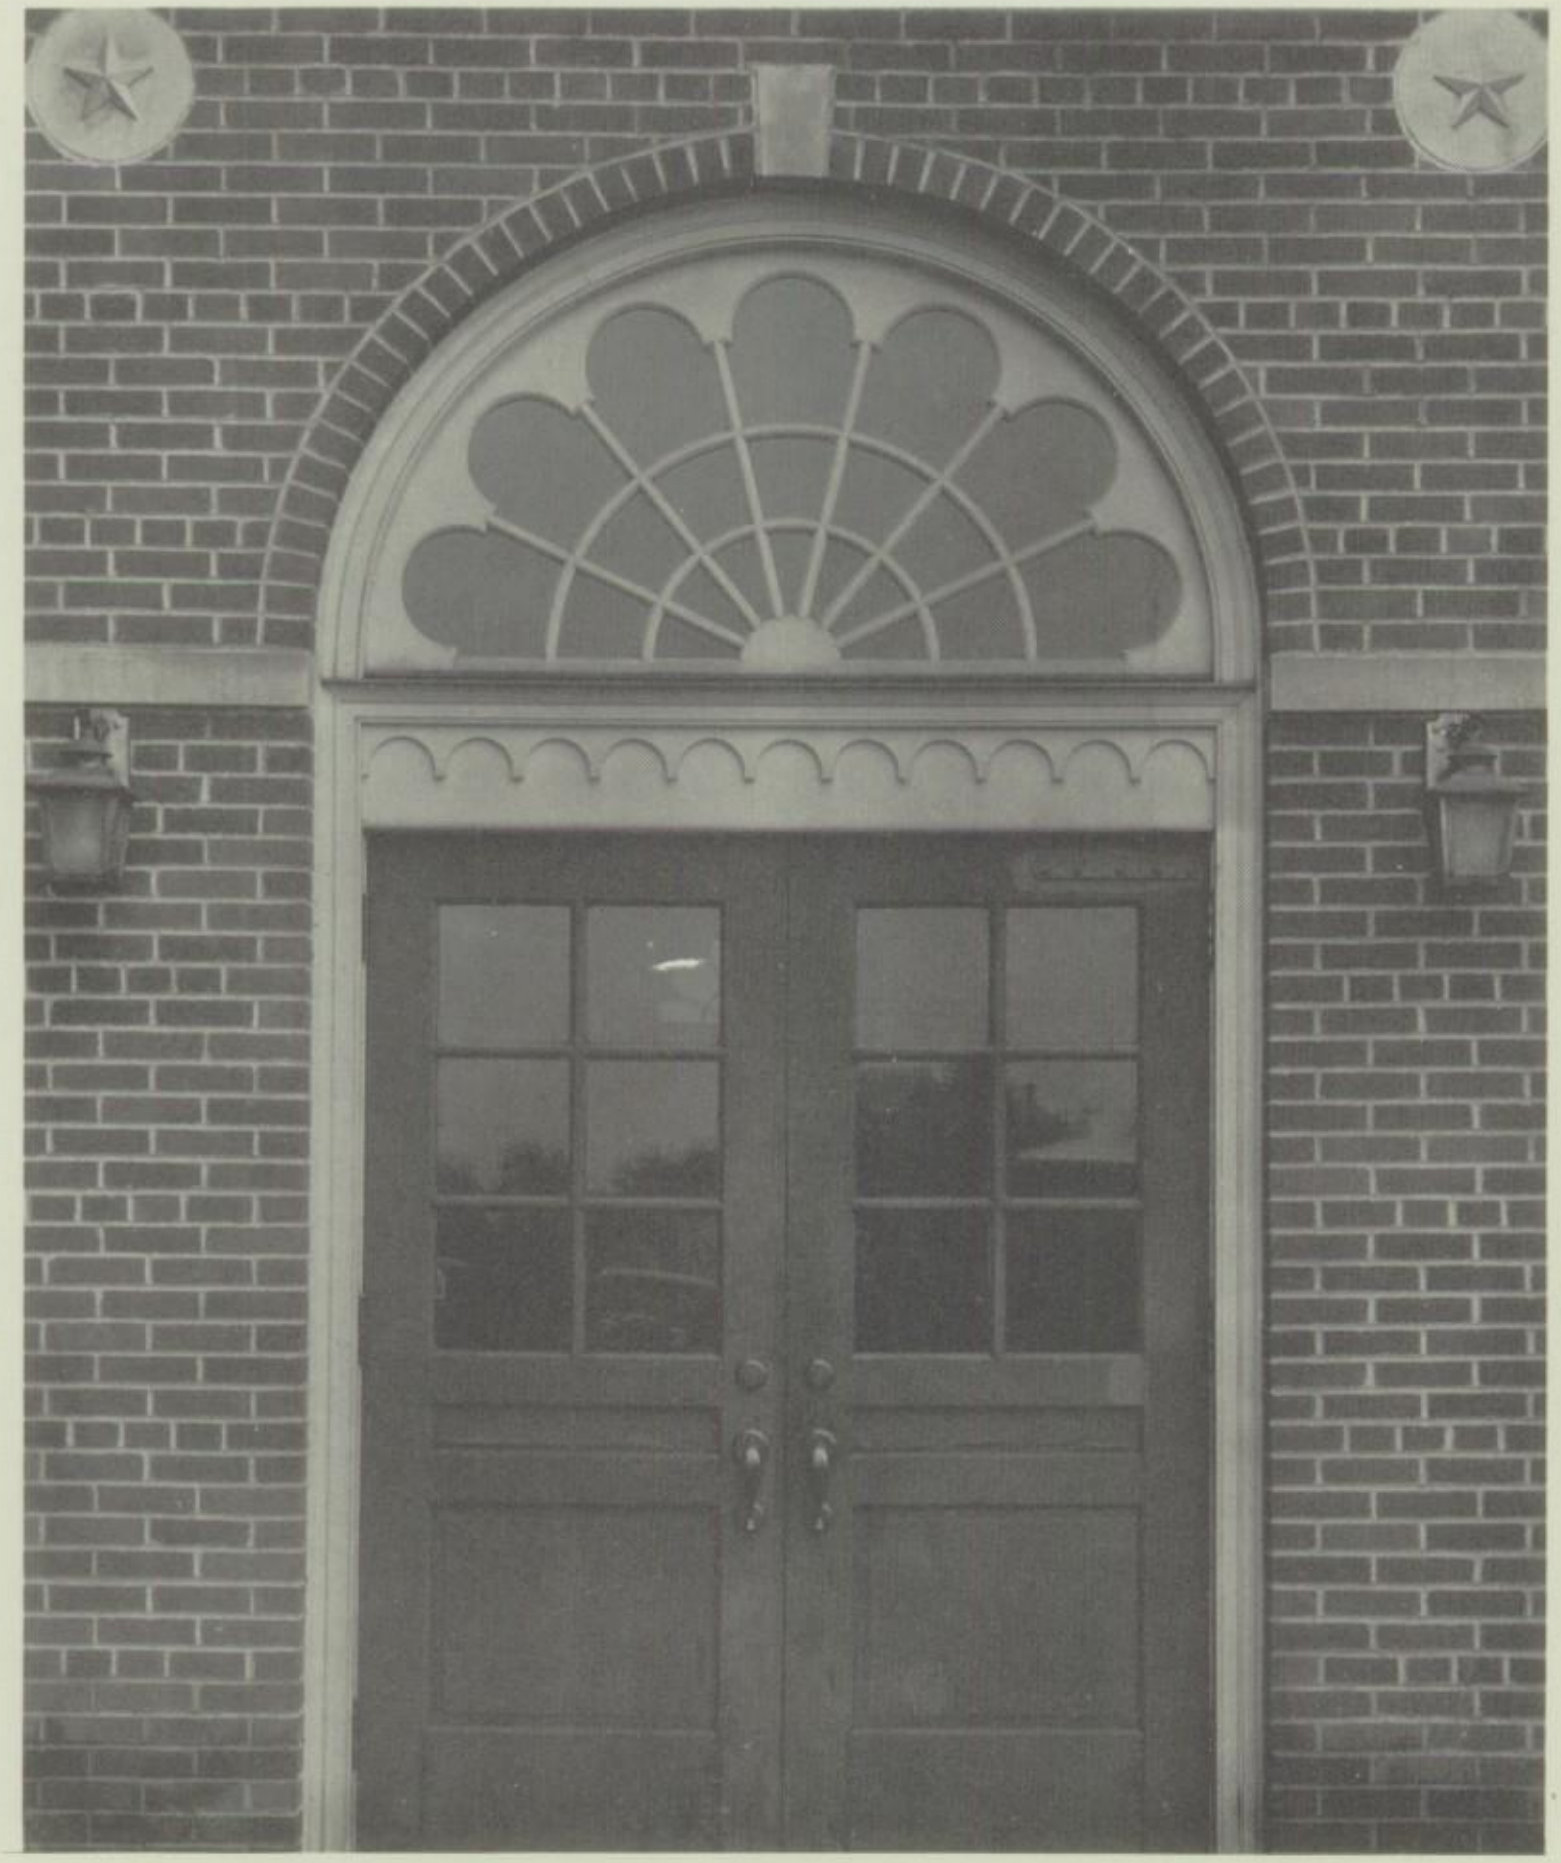
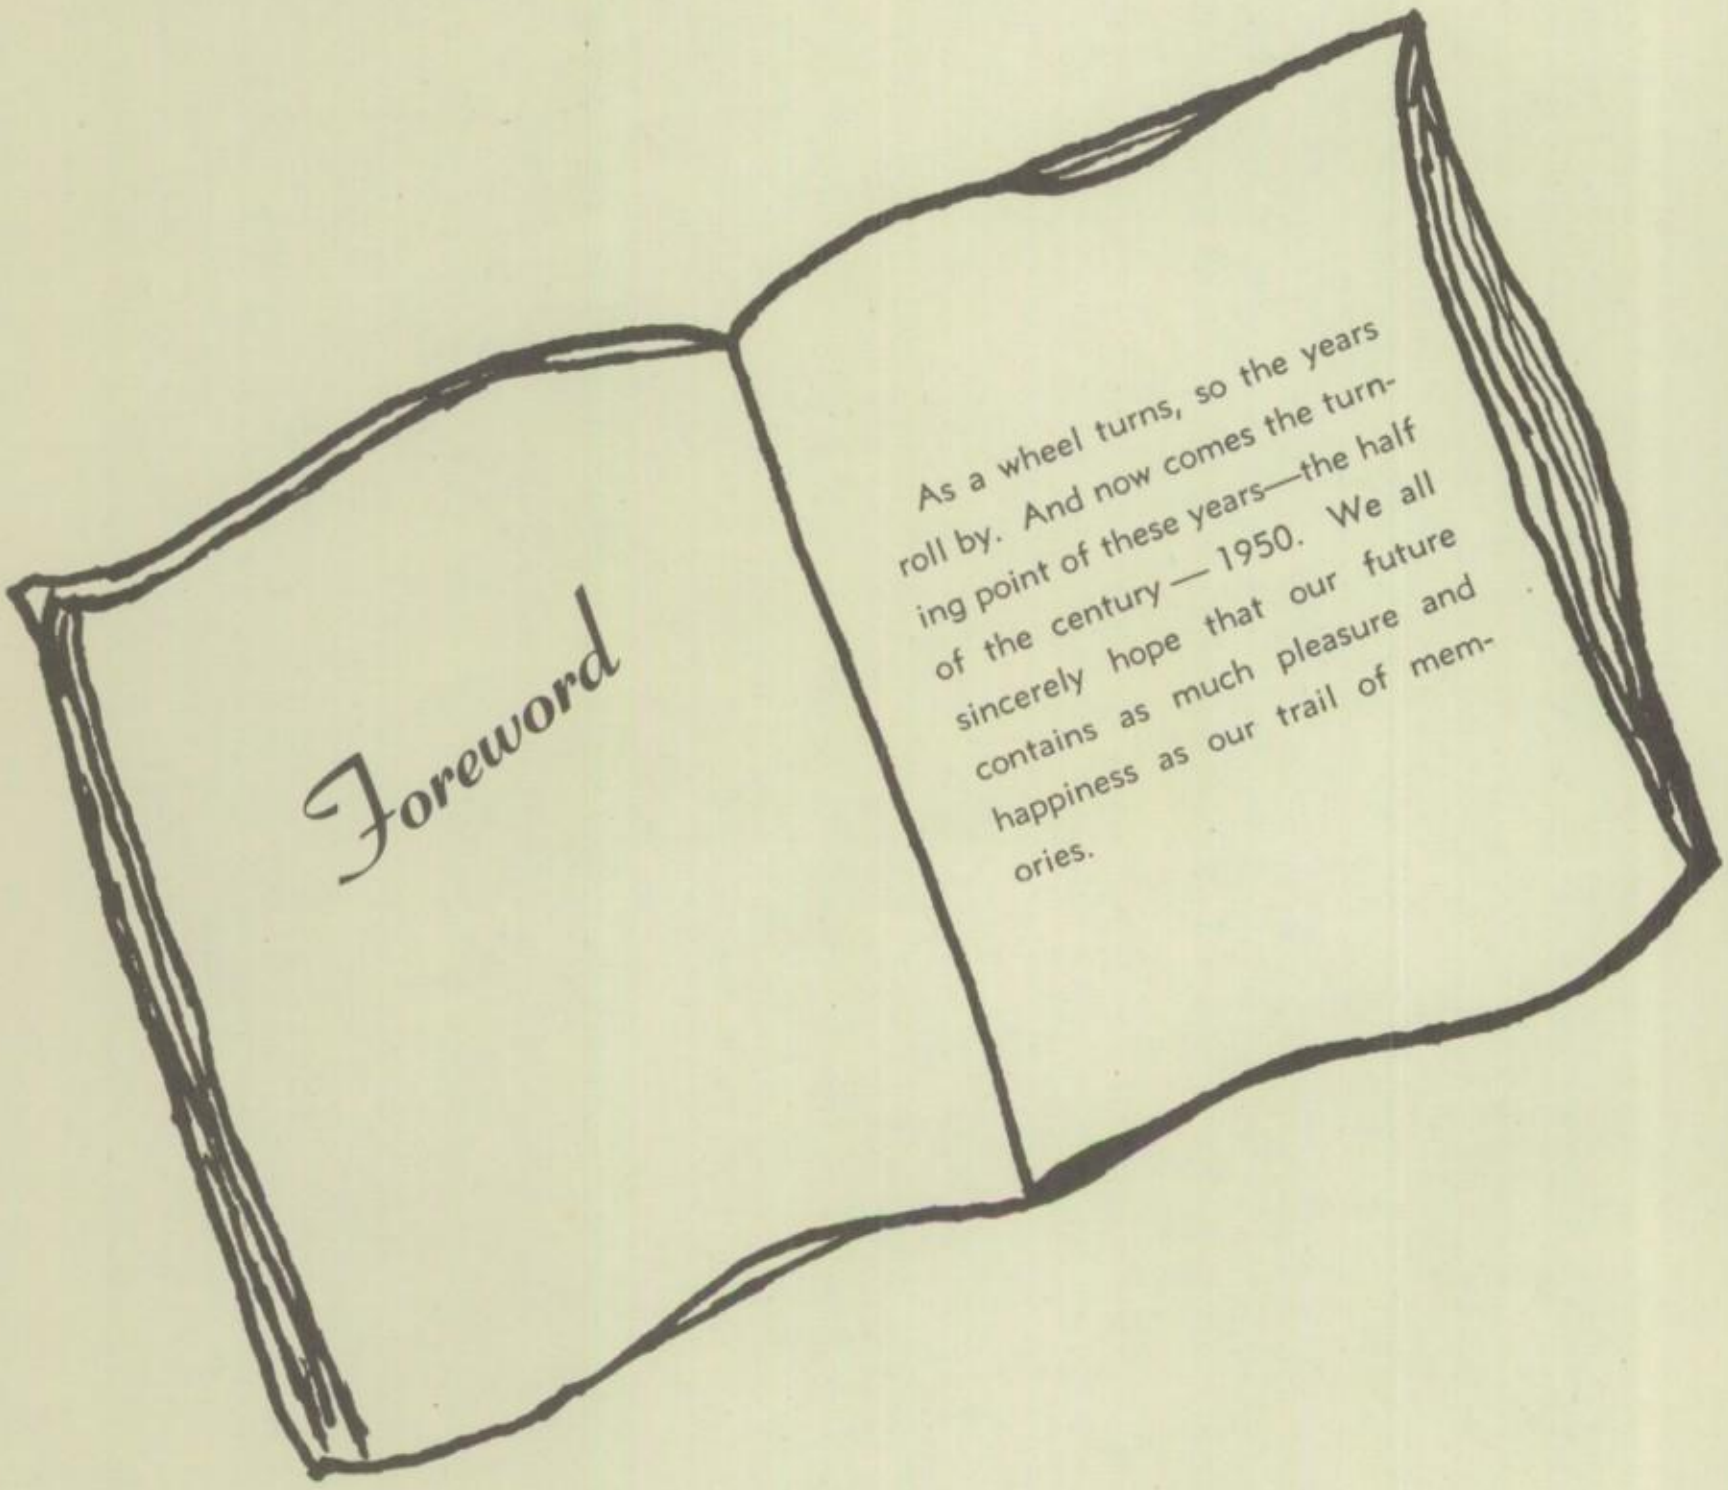
MEMORY'S TRAIL

Memory's Trail

THE 1950 YEARBOOK OF HILLIARDS HIGH SCHOOL



Through these portals pass the leaders of tomorrow.



Foreword
As a wheel turns, so the years roll by. And now comes the turning point of these years—the half of the century — 1950. We all sincerely hope that our future contains as much pleasure and happiness as our trail of memories.

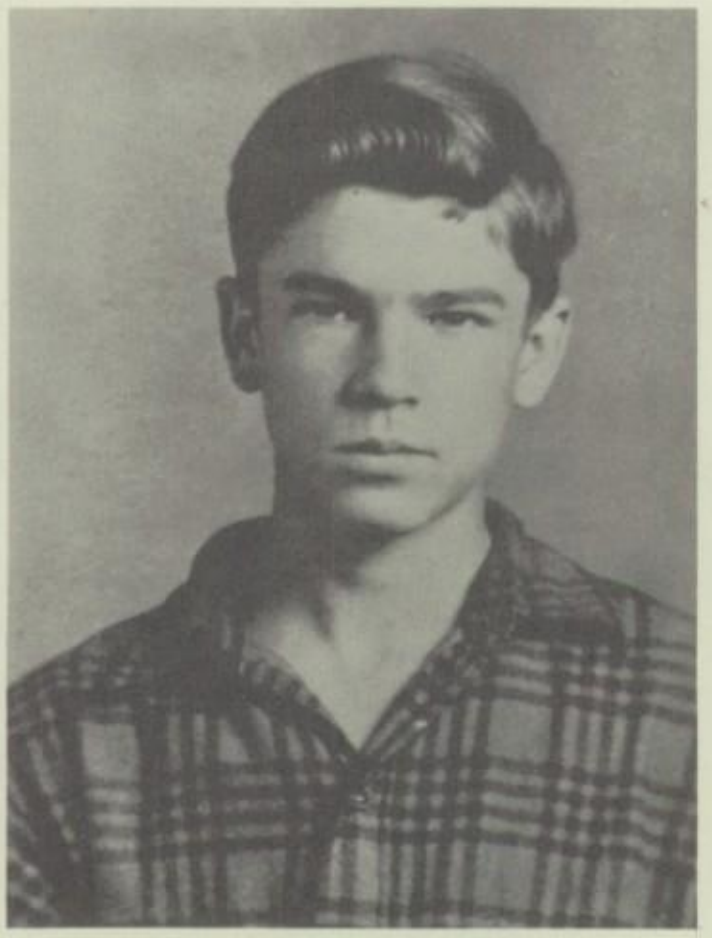
In Memory

of our departed classmate.



DON EBRIGHT

God has the plans for all our lives,
And through them shines His love;
Also, a place more beautiful
That's planned for us above.

We must not say that Don is gone
For that could never be;
His friendly ways and cheerful smile
Will live in memories.

'Twas God who called him in his youth—
Perhaps to warn His own
That life upon this earth is brief,
And we must soon go Home.

The Class Prophecy

After acquiring my molding millions I decided to take a small tour of the world. While visiting from one place to another, I naturally had to stop, to eat, and to be merry. As you may have guessed by now judging from the lettering of this so far, I've not got the highest standard in the world so I wasn't allowed to enter the high class joints. Just between me and you those cattle cars ain't too comfortable. Well as I traveled around, here is what I saw . . . .

Charles Pence, Bernard Geyer, Gene Nunamaker, and Bill Miller, the "Four Quacks," are hired by Herb Fladt to work on his duck farm.

The former Reva Nichols is now happily married to Philip Wright and has six little "Philipettes."

Herbert Leach is still trying to catch Frances Hart on the right day so she will say "yes" to a certain question; while Frances is trying to catch the man of her life who won't be jealous.

Clarice Scheiderer and Jack Flickinger are duo-pianists at "Buz" Christensen's "HOLE IN THE WALL SALOON" while Donna "The Voice" White is featured soloist when the going gets rough.

Anna McDaniel, Dorothy Salzgaber, Eileen Schweinsberger, and Olive Timmons, are now modeling bathing suits at "Howard's (Crispin) Rainbow Pool.

I see Woody Anderson is now owner of the "GET YOUR LAST DOLLAR" race track while Charlie Flynn is featured in the fifth riding Kenny "The Plug" Massie.

Jim Canfield, Larry Lutz, Charlie Cowgill, and Joe Martin are the "Four Mule Men" at Waybelow Normal College.

The former gals, Mary Fenner, Betty Owen, Flo Ann Tracy, Mae Morrow, and Virginia Williams have a full time job feeding husbands and changing diapers.

Ed Leppert and Bob Shaner are flipping flap-jacks at Larry Patrick's

ARCH A. ALDER
Chevrolet

"Drag'em In Drive Inn."

Margie (The Shape) Knick, Carol (Swooney Face) Walker, and Shirley (Swivel Hips) Bolender, chorus girls at Don (Clip'em every time) Clippinger's burlesque show are now engaging Attorney Jack (The Stinker) Winkler to plead their innocence on a "Who Popped the Bubbles" charge. Judge Russell Keagy is presiding.

Bill Rhoades and Don Patterson are featured in the main bout at Paul Evans' GRUNT & GROAN ARENA.

Juanita Morgan, Glendonna Tatterson, and Carole Burns are now taking steam baths daily at Bob (Atlas) Jenkins' TURKISH HEALTH STUDIO.

Sally Sichol is now teacher of Fail'em High School where Laney Stroble and his wife Mary (Coon) are sending their three children.

Connie Cowgill and Dolores Baum are famed swimmers of the Basin Lake, and now trying to swim the Bathtub Sea.

Charles Martin has been sitting atop a flagpole for 140 days and has broken the record formerly set by Bill Finch of 100 days.

Martha McFarland, Wilma Johnson, May Barr and Marlene Blevins are now cigarette girls at John Kesler's "Sparrow Nest Cafe."

Patty Cox, Jo Ann Price and Eleanor Williams have taken secretarial jobs in David Russell's loan company.

Jane Sidell has a swell job demonstrating washing machines.

Glenn Pugh, Emerson Skaggs, and Don Wiesenberger are proprietors of a mice and rat extermination company. Their motto is: "If you have rats smaller than us, we'll kill 'em."

Bob Mullins and Bob Stormont have given Hollywood their version of Laurel and Hardy.

Bob Johnson and Joe Stischok are grease monkeys trying to earn enough money to build a combination car, rocket, and submarine.

Compliments of
FRED C. DUNN
County Auditor

The Class Will

We, sixty-eight renowned members of the class of 1950, have patiently awaited our pardon from the members of the faculty for the many misdemeanors we have committed in the past four years. Being of sound mind and worthy origin, they have granted us this pardon and we will therefore proceed to make our last memorable farewell to Hilliards High School.

We, the senior class of Hilliards High, declare ourselves disabused from all previous implications and do hereby disclose our final written document.

We will our eagerness to attend school regularly and our admiration for make-up work to the Seventh Grade.

We bequeath our nimble spirit and cheery attitude to the Eighth Grade.

We bestow upon the Freshmen the cooperation and friendship, within the class; also, all our wonderful times together.

We leave beauty, brains and talent to our ardent admirers, the Sophomores.

We reserve the traditional balcony seats for the Juniors, those being fortunate, the front row. They fall heir, also, to our nonchalant ideas and affable manners.

We leave, to the faculty, our ability to get our pictures taken promptly so the 1951 Annual Staff won't be delayed in sending their material to press.

I, May Barr, with great hope, leave my extra credits to Gerald Alspaugh.

Bob Jenkins leaves his number 25 football jersey to Oscar Buck.

To Georgann Terry, I, Frances Hart, will my silly giggle and pleasant smile.

Sally Owen falls heir to that cute bashful blush that belongs to Mary Coon.

I, Woody Anderson, leave my ambition to do nothing, to anybody who wants it.

Bob Shaner wills his ability to get along with Miss Roberts to Rodney Painter.

I, Shirley Bolender, bequeath the honor of being crowned Football Queen to the lucky girl who is granted this privilege.

To Martha Davis goes Clarice Scheiderer's short curly hair, and her love for music to Paul Slyh.

Emerson Skaggs wills his Ford, the sharp bright green "31", to John Stroble, so he can attend school every day.

I, Jack Winkler, leave my size 7¾ football helmet to my brother Joe; he's the only guy it fits.

All old boy friends of Dorothy Salzgaber go to Earnestine Hannah.

I, Carol Walker, leave my hardy appetite and one hundred ten pounds to Connie Miller.

Paul Evans wills his sports ability to Clarence Jewett.

I, Charlie Flynn, bequeath my size 13 basketbball shoes, and seat on the bench to Dick Hansen.

To some poor dumb creature, Reva Nichols (busybody) bestows the honor of getting into more messes than she can get out of.

Juanita Morgan bequeaths her artistic talents to Harry Ball.

I, Bob Stormont, will my ability to cut classes to Victor Rausch.

Jack Flickinger leaves his student directorship of the band to David Ferguson.

Kenny Massie bequeaths his A in Review English to anyone who thinks he can get it.

I, Buz Christensen, will my presidency of Varsity-H to Dick Fisher and I hope it gets him a B in Civics, too.

Larry Patrick leaves his fine "Yellow Olds" to Nick Tornick.

I, Eugene Nunamaker, will my rosy cheeks to June Prince.

Betty Jo Stormont falls heir to Connie Cowgill's fine feet.

Patty Cox bequeaths her famous art of acquiring good luck to Grace Hoffman.

I, David Russell, will my laziness and daily routine of dreaming to Don McKean.

Bill Rhoades leaves his four quarters in the New Albany game to Bob Thompson.

Mary Jane Fenner wills her power to win a diamond, to some lucky girl.

STANDARD TRACTOR IMPLEMENT COMPANY
C. B. Shoemaker, Owner
Case Line of Farm Machinery

I, Donna White, leave my carefree attitude and Irish temper to Jean Krohn.

We, Flo Ann Tracy and Mae Morrow, leave to Lois Moore and Mary Lee Palchanis our class friendship.

Charles Cowgill wills his one touchdown to Oscar Buck.

I, Howard Crispin, leave my bottle (coke that is) to none other than Gary West.

Jane Sidel's admiration for arguing with Mr. Kindinger goes to Nancy Murray.

I, Carole Burns, bequeath my Sociology book, which I love so dearly, to Ruthie Breckenridge.

I, Bill Miller, will my F.F.A. presidency to David Hetrick and my Annual Staff position to any dope who wants it.

Don Patterson leaves his love for girls to his brother, (heaven help him) Ronnie.

I, Charles Pence, will my class presidency to any Junior with ambition.

I, Russell Keagy, will my front seat in the office to Ralph Richards.

I, Anna McDaniel, leave my chewing gum to Miss Mitchell, who I'm sure will appreciate it.

I, Olive Timmons, leave my gym shoes, that I never wear, to Mildred Hess.

Don Clippinger wills his burr haircut to Bill Boden.

I, Larry Lutz, leave my handicap (shyness) to David Leppert.

Herb Fladt wills his wish for more basketball victories to next year's team.

I, Dolores Baum, leave my sweet and quiet temper to Phyllis Lutz.

To anyone full of energy, Martha McFarland wills her job of bus conductor.

I, Eleanor Williams, will my honor of being Basketball Queen to some lucky girl.

John Kesler wills his ability to get along with student teachers to Bob Hooper.

I, Jim Canfield, leave the bow tie, in my class picture, to Dave Leppert.

I, Marlene Blevins, bequeath my shorthand ability to Ronnie McDowell.

I, Herb Leach, leave my editorship of the Wildcat to Ruby Chawner.

Herb Weisenberger falls heir to his brother Don's first spot on the golf team.

I, Laney Stroble, will my seven years in industrial arts to anybody who needs an extra credit.

Joe Martin leaves his crew cut and "pegs" to all the farmers.

Eileen Schweinsberger wills her E in Physical Education to Charlotte McNamer.

I, Bernard Geyer, will my terrific basketball ability to Jack Galbraith.

I, Bill Finch, leave my safe driving technique to Jim Smith.

I, Glenn Pugh, bequeath my understanding of Mr. Patterson to anybody who needs it.

Glendonna Tatterson's clean, white saddles go to Marjory Wagner.

I, Bob Mullins, will my Review Math ability to Mr. Hartsook.

I, Charles Martin, leave my 7th period study to Dick Davis.

Wilma Johnson bequeaths her greatest ambition to get better grades, to her sister, Alma.

I, Joan Price, will my cheerleading abilities to the new cheerleaders.

To anyone who can't resist the feel of money, Sally Sichol wills her ability to be a good treasurer.

I, Virginia Williams will my love for school to Ruth White.

I, Bob Johnson, leave my careful driving and parking place to Wayne Carey.

I, Ed Leppert, bequeath my ability to sign many teachers' signatures to Sonny Walcutt.

ROW 3—Jack Flickinger, Bill Rhoades, Dave Ferguson, Don McKean, Charles Pence, Dick Brashear.

The Honor Society members are chosen by vote of the teachers. The members must be in the upper third of their respective classes. The purpose of the Franklin County Honor Society is to create an enthusiasm for the scholarship, stimulate the desire to render service, promote leadership, and develop character in boys and girls of the secondary schools of Franklin County. Membership in any one year shall not exceed one fourth of the enrollment of either grade eleven or twelve.

The Hi-Y has had a modestly successful year. There have been the regular monthly meetings and several evening meetings.

Several money making ventures were undertaken, chief among them being an "after the game" dance during basketball season.

A highlight of the Hi-Y year is the sponsoring of the student election of County High School students to hold Franklin County Offices for the day.

It has been the purpose of the Hi-Y to promote throughout the school standards of Christian thoughts, actions and deeds.

The Wildcats played a good season but after the Canal Winchester game they were unsuccessful in winning. The team as a whole was a very good, well mannered club on the gridiron. We had a few casualties of which were; Winkler's leg injury in the Mt. Sterling game, Lutz's shoulder injury, and Shaner's back injury in the Canal Winchester game.

The Reserves enjoyed a good season with 12 wins and 8 losses. The league standing was a 7-win to 3-loss record. The squad was high-spirited and well-mannered. Their playing was very good and they were well coached by Bob Walker under the supervision of Tom Swope. Our hats off to a swell team and success in the future!

"SO HELP ME"—In the basement laboratory at the Hart house, Harry, who is sweet on Su Roberts, cooks up a formula for killing bugs. Miss Fay, Harry's biology teacher, is interested in the insecticide.

Coach Baxter is interested in Miss Fay. Together they set Harry up in business. Harry hires his pals—Squeaky with the lazy disposition and changing voice; Plato with the hermit complex; Mickie, his starry eyed sister who reads Walter Pater; and Permelia, Su's rival.

They manufacture "Harry's hari-kari for bugs." Business booms! Then —smash! Suddenly retailers refuse to handle the insecticide—not sufficient profit. No more supplies. The help strikes, the backers back out. Then Yoyo starts trouble between Harry and Su. Then finally everything turns out just fine!

Senior Class Play

"MOTHER IS A FRESHMAN"—The play is a three-act comedy based on the complications of college life. The main action of the play takes place in the Green Hall Girls Dorm at Pointer College. Susan Abbott's mother has just entered the college with a scholarship given for a woman with the name of Abigail Fortitude. Susan and her mother have complications over the private life of the zoology professor. Bobo Jackson, the college bigshot, and other college fellows are overwhelmed by the beauty of Abigail. Dean Gillingham doesn't approve of anything unconventional and he believes Mrs. Abbott must be trying some publicity stunt. The play is full of excitement and comedy which adds to the interest and amusement of the audience.
